MEMORIAL SERVICE TO CELEBRATE STEVE DOWALL'S LIFE

Steve Dowall has been missing on Aoraki Mt Cook since Thursday 26 November. With the blessing of his family, a memorial service to celebrate Steve's life will be held at 2.00pm on Thursday 17 December at Tawa Baptist Church, Main Road, Tawa. All are welcome.

A resident of Tawa and with his children having gone through local schools (Redwood School and Tawa College), Steve had been working with United Nations relief in Myanmar in recent times. He was back in New Zealand on annual leave and was climbing in his beloved South Island mountains when he went missing.

The thoughts and prayers of many local people are with his family at this sad time, as per the many tributes expressed on Facebook.
