OPENING OF NEWLY-FENCED DOG EXERCISE AREA

You're welcome to join us at the 'opening' of the newly-fenced dog exercise area at Taylor Park on Saturday 15 July at 1pm.

Friendly Animal Services people will be there to register your dog (eftpos available) and to hand out free treats and poo bags.

The 'opening' is being organised by Northern Ward councillors Malcolm Sparrow, Jill Day and Peter Gilbert at 1pm. Bring along your canine companion to enjoy some freebies and a run around the dog park.

Wellington City Council fenced the dog exercise area at Ian Galloway Park in Wilton last year. This year's project, Taylor Park, has just about been completed. Next year will be the turn of a dog park in the southern suburbs.

Drive through the car park for Redwood Station (south) and park outside the badminton hall which is alongside Taylor Park. See you there!

COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT AT TAKAPU ISLAND (SOUTHERN END)

There have been questions asked about what's currently happening up at Takapu Island.

There are two pieces of land being developed. The first is between William Earp Place and the railway line, west of Countdown, where a substantial number of residential units are being constructed, 24 in the first round (see the upper photo below).

That's quite separate from the area where development has started south of Countdown (lower photo below). Council has granted a resource consent "for earthworks and a new commercial retail development which will have a gross floor area of 8473 sqm, comprising 7000 sqm of retail space, 1066 sqm of commercial space (offices), 274 sqm for a fast food outlet, and 133 sqm for a café. The development will be served by 243 car parks and three loading bays."

Update: Apparently earthworks were started before the required environmental plans were submitted to Council. The work has been stopped until the correct procedure is followed.

PAXSTERS IN TAWA?

NZ Post is hoping to have two of its 'Paxsters' – an electric delivery vehicle – operating in Tawa some time soon. Members of the Tawa Community Board were able to see the Paxster in action on a recent Saturday afternoon in Brasenose Place.

Three NZ Post representatives, including driver "Postman Pax", were there to answer questions.

See a video clip of the Paxster on this page: <https://www.facebook.com/WCCNorthernCouncillors>

REPLACING THE HANGING BASKETS

The hanging baskets in Tawa's central shopping area, all 50 or so baskets, were replaced by a team from Tawa Rotary earlier in June. The flowers are 'updated' every six months. They are currently financed primarily by the Tawa Community Board, with the hands-on work being carried out by Tawa Rotary.

50th ANNIVERSARY OF DR BRIAN WEBB'S DEATH

It's been brought to our attention that June 2017 was the 50th anniversary of the death of Dr Brian Webb. The following article was placed online in 2003 at www.tawalink.com/brian_webb_rose_garden.html under the heading Brian Webb Memorial Rose Garden:

"In 1970 the Tawa Borough Council in association with local service organisations constructed a rose garden in Grasslees Park as a memorial to Dr Brian Webb, a member of the Borough Council who had first been elected in 1956. He was also a popular local medical practitioner and a member of several organisations – kindergarten, horticultural society (being a rose lover), Rotary, etc. He became Deputy Mayor in 1962 and held this office when he died suddenly in June 1967 at the early age of 42 years. The Brian Webb Kindergarten, which opened in Victory Crescent in 1969, was named in his honour."

CYCLING INSTRUCTION AT HAMPTON HILL SCHOOL

In recent times Pedal Ready instructors have been giving cycle riding advice to senior students at Hampton Hill School, one of two schools in the Northern Suburbs with a WCC-supported "Bikes in Schools" programme and cycle track in place.

Instruction includes checking the bike before riding, learning road rules and practising riding in schoolgrounds before venturing out onto the street.

BROWN PINE TREES AROUND TAWA

– from the Friends of Tawa Bush Reserves Facebook page

A few people have been asking about the brown pine trees around Tawa presently.

According to one of our members this is due to Dothistroma needle blight – a fungus disease. While it does stunt pine tree growth, it will rarely kill them and they will usually bounce back when conditions are less suited to the disease – cooler and drier conditions.

Common symptoms are the red banding on the needles and browning particularly around the lower limbs as water washes the spores down. It is a problem only to pines.

At the moment the disease is common where pines are growing throughout Wellington. Generally pine blight diseases have been uncommon in the Greater Wellington region but have probably been aggravated by the generally warmer and wetter autumn season we've had this year.

2 MINUTES WITH Michael Johnson

One of the 'kingpins' in the Tawa Community Patrol – who assist as eyes and ears for the Police in the local community – is Michael Johnson. He is often seen representing the patrol at local school fairs and at the annual "Safer Plates" event. In his mid-twenties, another of Michael's passions is indoor bowls. When he started umpiring in his teens he was the youngest umpire in the world and possibly still is today.

Where were you born? Wellington.

Where did you grow up?

I have spent most of my life living in Tawa, here since I was two years old. I am currently looking to build or buy in Tawa with my partner.

Where were you educated?

I went to Redwood School, Tawa Intermediate and Tawa College and loved every moment. I then studied Criminology and Public Policy (Bachelors & Honours) at Victoria University.

What about family?

I live with my partner Kelsi. My parents (Allan & Sharon), brother (Scott) and Nana and Poppa (Pauline & Keith) all live in Tawa. Tawa is certainly our family home.

Work experience over the years

During university I worked at Bunnings Porirua in the nightfill team. Once I graduated, I worked at the NZ Customs Service for a short time before starting my career at NZ Police. I've been there for 4 years now and love every minute.

What are your interests and hobbies?

I am the Coordinator of the Tawa Community Patrol and love getting out in the community with this volunteer group. I've been community patrolling for 8 years now. I have also played lawn bowls at the Tawa Bowling Club for the last 12 years. I have been an International Umpire for the same time and love being involved in that side of the sport. I enjoy watching powerboat racing when I can.

Favourite sports team and/or sports person?

I really enjoy watching the national lawn bowls team – the Blackjacks, and always have time for the All Blacks. After last week though, Team New Zealand is my new favourite!

Favourite musical group and/or individual singer?

I recently went to Adele and loved it. I listen to anything really – Elton John, Michael Jackson, Michael Buble and give a rough attempt to sing along to anything on the radio.

What is your favourite holiday destination in New Zealand?

For the last few years, I have loved camping on Lake Karapiro with my partner and family watching powerboat races. Up around Whangarei and the Bay of Islands is another favourite spot!

What accomplishments/achievements in your life give you the most satisfaction/pride?

I hold a real sense of pride in the way the Tawa Community Patrol has developed in the last few years to become a key part of the community. We have a really good team of day and night volunteers who really do want to make a difference in Tawa.

With my international bowls umpiring, I have recently been selected to officiate at next year's Commonwealth Games in Brisbane. I have previously umpired at the Youth Commonwealth Games in Samoa which was also very special. I also umpired at the World Bowls Championships last year which was certainly an experience.

What are three things you would like to do before you die?

I would really like to learn how to fly a glider, visit as many countries as I can, and re-visit the many cool spots around New Zealand that I visited as a child.

TAWA PEOPLE

There are lots of interesting people in Tawa, some well-known, others not known well at all.

“2 Minutes with ” profiles of various Tawa people have featured in this newsletter over the months and years. Their purpose is to give us the opportunity to find out a little more about some of them – so that we as a community have a slightly better understanding of who other locals are and what makes them tick (so to speak).

Those profiles, 40 to date, are available at www.tawalink.com/tawa_people.html

WHAT'S SO GREAT ABOUT

Most of us think that Tawa is a wonderful community, perhaps one of the best suburbs in the whole country. Here's my list of 25 reasons (in no particular order) why I think Tawa is a great place to live. This is the exact 'presentation' I gave at Tawa Rotary recently.

– Malcolm Sparrow

1. I like the community spirit evident in Tawa, and we hear repeatedly that other locals do too. Which leads on to
2. Neighbours' Day in Tawa. Every March anywhere between 30 to 50 streets are involved in neighbourhood barbecues or afternoon teas. Is there any other suburb with that kind of number?
3. Neighbourly. It's very pleasing that more than 3600 people in Tawa are part of the Neighbourly website, more evidence of a connected community.
4. I like the fact that Tawa's six primary schools, intermediate and college all work together well, and more than 90% of kids who grow up here go from primary school to the intermediate and on to college in Tawa.
5. Tawa College Community Education. Tawa College is one of only two colleges still offering night school classes in the whole Wellington region. That's impressive!
6. I like the fact that we have the Tawa Music Centre. It's been operating every Saturday morning for many years, teaching primary and intermediate students to play musical instruments.
7. The Tawa Schools' & Community Music Festival. I'm not aware of any other single suburb in the country that runs a music festival involving 600-700 participants every two years like we do. It's a brilliant Tawa event.
8. We have 12 churches on or near the Main Road, and another six or so mostly ethnic church groupings. That's a total of around 18. I like the significant contribution they make to this community.

9. The Tawa Community Board does a great job, especially with the Tawa Community Civic Awards held every two years to acknowledge the work of local volunteers and, at the end of each year, the Tawa Primary Schools' Citizenship Awards involving seven local schools.
10. Vibrant Tawa – both a proactive residents association and a proactive business group operate under the Vibrant Tawa umbrella.
11. Sports facilities and clubs – Tawa has most of the usual sports clubs, plus badminton and squash facilities. As for Tawa Bowling Club, I believe it is the biggest in the whole of Wellington, when all too many are actually declining in numbers.
12. I like the fact that Tawa has a huge number of community groups and organisations, including sizeable Probus and U3A groups for older people.
13. We have strong Rotary and Lions clubs. I'm glad that we have the annual book fair, Toot for Tucker each December, and the Lions Saturday Market at Outlet City.
14. The Tawa Historical Society, which is very effective and produces a new book on some aspect of Tawa history every year.
15. Parks and reserves. Tawa is very blessed in having a big number of parks and playgrounds. Willowbank and Grasslees, amongst others, are superb specimens with the Porirua Stream running through them.
16. It's great that we now have our own community garden. The Tawa Community Garden has been operating for around 20 months at Coronation Park in Oxford St with a team of dedicated volunteers.
17. Bush walks. We have several superb bush walks on both sides of the valley, and we now have our own forest, the Forest of Tane. I walk my dog in Redwood Bush almost every day.
18. The Friends of Tawa Bush Reserves, which does a great job in looking after our reserves. We're very fortunate to have them.
19. Hanging baskets. Local people very much appreciate these. The most recent evidence of that was the number of 'likes' on Vibrant Tawa's Facebook page showing Rotary members hanging the new baskets last month.
20. Tawa Volunteer Fire Brigade. We're privileged to have them serving us so well. And I like hearing the station siren. It reminds us that Tawa is like a small town in many respects.
21. Tawa Community Patrol. We're also privileged to have such a strong patrol. Some other suburbs have lost their patrol, some have fewer than 10 members. We have more than 35 volunteers serving Tawa.
22. Tawa Valley Pathway – Ara Tawa. It's great to have the shared walkway/ cycleway from Willowbank in the south to Kenepuru (and beyond) in the north.
23. Spring into Tawa, a yearly event which gets very good community support. Likewise with
24. The Tawa Christmas Parade. We're one of just two Wellington suburbs which has its own Christmas parade. There's a saying that everyone loves a good parade. Long may it last!
25. Floral sign at the entrance to Tawa. I very much like our distinctive floral sign. It was an initiative of Doris Mills, the Mayor of Tawa in 1986-87. Our floral sign is 30 years old and going strong!

To sum up, Tawa is a very special place! We are indeed privileged to live here.
