THIS EDITION IS A SUPPLEMENTARY NEWSLETTER. THE FULL AUGUST ISSUE IS SCHEDULED FOR EARLY NEXT MONTH.

TAWA COLLEGE'S "ANYTHING GOES!" – DON'T MISS IT!

There are tickets still available for the college's major production, but it finishes later this week! We've heard glowing reports and know of people who have enjoyed it so much that they've been twice! Tickets can be obtained from eventfinda.co.nz for 7.30pm on Thursday 1st, Friday 2nd and Saturday 3rd August. Door sales may also be available on the night. Adults $20; Students, Children and Senior Citizens $12.

From local resident Judith Stanesby: "If you enjoy a great musical and craving for good old fashioned entertainment, then I can highly recommend the Tawa College Musical "Anything Goes!"

It is a great production that is lighthearted and hilarious. The cast are all very talented, costumes are stylish and exquisite, choreography and music brilliant!!!

If you want to be thoroughly entertained, then go and see the Tawa College Musical "Anything Goes!" You will be impressed!!!

NO FREE LUNCH AT LINDEN THIS FRIDAY

Please note that the Linden Kai Kitchen Initiative which provides a free hot meal at the Linden Social Centre each Friday will NOT be doing so on Friday 2 August. It will resume on Friday 9 August.

TAWA COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA CONCERT

"Berkahn & Haydn" – a family-friendly concert led by local cellist and Tawa Orchestra Director, Sam Berkahn. Sam's piece, "Concert Overture", composed especially for this concert, is in a distinctly Haydn-esque style to complement other Haydn works performed by the orchestra.

The Tawa Orchestra is a community orchestra that formed as part of the Tawa Community Education programme at Tawa College and attracts players of all ages and walks of life.

Where: St Barnabas Church, 35 Box Hill Rd, Khandallah

When: Sunday 4 August at 2.30pm Koha entry

AN INVITATION TO HEAR AN AMAZING YOUNG MAN

A chance to hear one of the most exciting and inspirational speakers that Tawa Rotary has hosted – 19-year-old Matthew Strawbridge, founder of Dyslexia Potential at age 13, Young New Zealander of the Year nominee at age 15, and recently back from being a key-note speaker at Australia’s National Youth Leadership and Business Summit.

Matt is a coach, mentor and entrepreneur. His company, Dyslexia Potential, was created to empower and enrich the lives of dyslexic children. Matt also runs nationwide empowerment events and is a co-founder of TutorBook, a tutoring company that connects NZ school children in need of academic support with university students.

Join Tawa Rotary and Matt for a buffet meal on Tuesday 27 August at 6pm. Tawa Bowling Club, Davies St, Tawa. Cost: $25 per head, payable on the night. RSVP: tawa.rotaryapologies@gmail.com by 9pm on Sunday 25 August. ROTARY connecting the world - www.tawarotary.org.nz

CASH DONATION TO TAWA FOODBANK

As well as donating a large quantity of food and personal and cleaning goods to the Tawa Foodbank (Salvation Army) in the recent “Stuff the Trailer” promotion, Tawa residents also generously donated $715 in cash. This amount was made up to $1000 by the organising groups, the Rotary and Inner Wheel Clubs of Tawa.

CONGRATULATIONS TO NADA BAKERY (AGAIN)

From the Nada Bakery Facebook page:

“With the weather turning chilly, what could be better than a Gold Award winning Steak & Cheese pie?”

We are very excited to have received a Gold Award at the Bakels NZ Supreme Pie Award last night for our Steak & Cheese Pie. We also won a Bronze award for our Slow Cooked Pork Belly in Apple & Pear Cider.

Pop in store today for a delicious, warm award winning pie.”
